The food and clothing parcels were distributed to 474 men, 43 women and 12 children. CARMIAN appealed to Entraide Francaise, Alliance Baptiste and similar organizations for grants of clothing in 45 cases.

e. Medical assistance

During the period February - June 1949 medical assistance was provided for 224 persons. Such assistance included 239 examinations at home, 776 examinations in hospitals. Sixteen persons were hospitalized. During this period 727,500 French francs were spent on hospitalization and 116,300 French francs were spent for drugs and medicines.

2. Administrative assistance.

During the period April - November 1949, CARMIAN secured permits to enter France for 88 persons, including 6 who were still in Rumania, 53 refugees in Yugoslavia, and 29 residing in other countries. Although the Yugoslav Government refused to issue exit permits to these 53 Rumanian refugees, they were reportedly able to use letters relative to these entry permits from the French Consulate in Belgrade to secure their transfer to camps from which escape from Yugoslavia was easier. During the period 1 January - 30 November 1949, CARMIAN undertook the following interventions with international and French Governmental agencies:

- a. Requests for IRO eligibility certificates - 413
- b. Requests for residence permits from Prefecture of police - 104
- c. Requests for exit-reentry permits from Prefecture of police - 122
- d. Requests for special entry permits for France from French Foreign Ministry - 90
- e. Recommendations for grant of immigration visas made to governments of nations in Western Hemisphere - 254
- f. Requests for employment of refugees made to corporations and institutions - 25
- g. Requests for work permits made to French Ministry of Labor - 23
- h. Requests for employment of intellectuals made to International Commission for Placement of Intellectual Refugees - 11
- i. Attestations in absence of personal documents (birth certificates, marriage licenses, etc.) prepared - 466
